Reissue of the Legendary Classic, Super 64X

The legendary Super 64X chromatic harmonica from Hohner returns in a strictly limited production run of just 300 units worldwide.

Known for its bold and elegant black-and-gold design, the Super 64X has long been one of Hohner's most requested reissues. After years of anticipation from fans, this iconic model is finally making its return.

Not just a visual recreation, the reissue faithfully reproduces the original manufacturing process and reed construction specifications. It inherits the unique construction that generates rich volume, utilizing reed plates in the lower two-octave range that are twice the standard thickness.

As a special feature of this limited edition release, each instrument is individually engraved with a unique three-digit serial number.

Limited production of 300 units worldwide

Expected release: December 2026 Price : JPY 137,500 (including tax)
